

A postdoctoral position is now available in the field of plasma physics at Auburn University, with an expected starting date in the beginning of 2018. This position is focused on understanding the physics of collisionless magnetic reconnection. Experience in gyrokinetic and/or fully kinetic particle-in-cell simulations is highly desirable. Interested candidates are encouraged to submit application according to the following instructions and please refer to "Plasma Physics" in the cover letter. Review of applicants will begin Nov. 1, 2017 and will continue until the position is filled. Specific questions on this position should be addressed to Dr. Yu Lin (linyu01@auburn.edu).

The College of Sciences and Mathematics at Auburn University located in Auburn AL (<http://www.auburn.edu/cosam>) is seeking candidates for the position of postdoctoral fellow in the sciences and mathematics. From time-to-time, postdoctoral positions become available under a variety of research grants and projects in the college. We are seeking applications from individuals with a Ph.D. in any one area such as: biology, chemistry, geosciences, mathematics, statistics, physics or related fields. The candidates selected for these positions must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time appointment is scheduled to begin and continue working legally for the proposed term of employment; and must possess excellent written and interpersonal communication skills. The positions are available for a minimum of one year as full-time 12 month appointments, with renewal possible based on performance, need, and/or funding for a maximum of four years. These are non-tenure track positions. Salary will be commensurate with education and experience. Review of applications will begin after July 5th, 2017 and continue throughout the year as positions become available. Please upload curriculum vitae, statement of research interests, along with a list of three references and contact information at <http://aufacultypositions.peopleadmin.com/postings/2347>
